Hello. I'm here to tell you a very important lesson. Stay safe online.

Now just how am I supposed to do that?

By not giving out personal information like where you live or what your name is. Because it can put you in a lot of DANGER!!!
I'm Mike, from your biology class. Don't worry, I know the rule not to agree to meet a stranger.

Do you want to hang out this weekend?

If you can tell me who you really are, because I am not supposed to agree to meet strangers.

We also can not give out are password.

We never give out passwords or personal info to strangers. That is being a digital citizen.

Bailey and I want to help you be a good digital citizen!

Here are some ways how to be a great digital citizen!

Never, ever believe anything you see online.

Some of it is true, but a lot of it is a lie!

Don't post any pictures of yourself or others online.

Ask a trusted adult!

NEVER GIVE OUT YOUR PASSWORD!!!

Someone could hack into your computer!

Don't friend any strangers online.
By Ryan sparenberg

- Remember kids don’t give out any personal information.
- There are people out there who would kidnap you or worse.
- Don’t put any pictures on the internet because it could start a flame war or cyberbullies.
- Be respectful to people on the internet or you may become a massive cyber bully and they won’t like it.
- Don’t be mean about other people on the internet or they will.

And that’s how you…”
